FOREWORD

Psalms 119:130 "The entrance of thy words giveth light . . ."
John 1:4 "In Him was life: and the life was the light of men."
Luke 5:14 "Ye are the light of the world."

"LIGHTS"

Light is essential to vision! Those who have life through Christ are possessed of both light and an enlarged vision. An enlightened and regenerated and spirit-filled body of Christians is the Light and Hope and Life of the World. May each reader of the "Vision" Love the Word, Live for the Christ, and Possess and Spread the Saving Light!

"The whole world was lost in the darkness of sin —"

"In Him was life; and the life was the light of men."

John 1:4

Dedication

Miss Lois Stanley:

We as C. E. I.'ers will always remember your capable and efficient ability as our librarian — ever ready to give a helping hand in the location of books and reference materials.

Your steadfast faith in God and understanding of the students have caused us to appreciate you as a "Shining Light" for the Lord.

In grateful appreciation of the vision implanted to us to follow Christ as the Light of the World and for the example as Friend and Librarian we dedicate this our 1959 Vision to you.

CORRESPONDING DEPARTMENT

These courses are designed to meet the need of those who are unable to leave home and occupation, yet desire training for Christian service. They also meet the need of college students who would supplement their studies with a course in Bible, and the need of many pastors and missionaries, who, while laboring in their appointed spheres, may thus continue their Bible and theological work.

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT

This department handles the publicity materials of the school, in relation to newspaper articles, and advertisements.

"Every teacher should be a pearl diver, or a diamond miner, looking for treasures in the school class each day" . . .

Board of Trustees

Of great value to any institution of higher learning is a consecrated Board of Trustees, and C. E. I. is justly proud of this choice group of business and professional men and women who sacrificially give of their time and support to the school.

The unselfish devotion of this able group to C. E. I. has been instrumental in upholding the aims and standards of the school. Their spiritual lives definitely exert a great influence upon the advancement of our school.

The members of the board are: Mr. Jay Bowman, President, Chicago, Illinois; Dr. Howard H. Hamlin, Chicago, Illinois; Mr. A. M. Rearick, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Mr. C. A. Dammarell, Chicago, Illinois; Rev. Clarence Budensiek, Cedar Falls, Iowa; Dr. D. Willia Caffray, Huntington Park, California; Mr. A. N. Carstensen, Chicago, Illinois; Mr. E. O. Fessler, Des Moines, Iowa; Dr. J. H. Hamblen, Abilene, Texas; Dr. Harry E. Jessop, Orlando, Florida; Mr. Laurence Luce, Fort Valley, Georgia; Rev. H. T. Rasche, Fairfield, Iowa; Rev. Ralph A. Vanderwood, Marion, Indiana; Rev. Dale Ward, Breckenridge, Michigan; Dr. George R. Warner, Marion, Indiana; Mr. J. V. Zook, University Park, Iowa; Dr. H. M. Couchenour, University Park, Iowa; Rev. Oscar A. Monson, Minneapolis, Minnesota; Rev. James Rutgers, Hendricks, Minnesota.

Our New President

PRESIDENT JOHN LOGAN

God has called Rev. John Logan as our new leader. He served as president-elect from August 1 until November 1 when he took over the full responsibility of the presidency.

He is a graduate of the Bible Training Institute in Glasgow, Scotland, and before World War II he studied for his Bachelor of Divinity at the University of London. As full-time general director of the Interdenominational League of Prayer during the war, he held weekly prayer services for the royal household and its servants. He has also served as president of Bexley Bible College in Kent, and was editor for eight years of the "Spiritual Life" publication.

We of the Chicago Evangelistic Institute Family are happy to welcome him as our new leader and look forward to his capable leadership as the head of our school.

ouls so dear.

The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

Isaiah 9:2

The Oratorio Chorus began the 1958-1959 school year by singing the Christmas section of Handel's Messiah in our Sunday afternoon chapel service. Later, this group joined with the choir of Penn College and the Community Chorus in another presentation of the same in the Spencer Auditorium at Penn College.

On Easter Sunday, the Easter section of the Messiah was presented in chapel, and the year's final program, the Elijah by Mendelssohn, was given on Baccalaureate Sunday.

The Ladies' and Men's Ensembles are small choral groups which have contributed to the musical life of the school. Under the direction of Miss Ruth Marsden and Mr. Walter Tink, they have sung in our chapel services as well as in churches of different localities. The group also served as a choir for the Thanksgiving Vesper Service and for a Christmas Chapel Program.

Organizations . . .

Student Council

The Student Council, an active organization at C. E. I., serves as a liaison group between administration and students. Through discussion and prayer many problems are solved in the interest of the school.

The organization is indeed a busy one for it sponsors many of the school activities, such as supplying each new student with a "big brother" or "big sister;" Get-acquainted party; Open House; Thanksgiving and Christmas activities; Valentine Party; and the Selection of the Annual Editor.

The willingness of each of its members to work toward the accomplishments of its objectives is helpful in developing a deeper spiritual life and in maintaining the C.E.I. family spirit.

GENE MARTIN, Editor

The Annual Staff

Looking to God for inspiration and help, the staff members applied their hands and minds to the joyful task of choosing the different sections that have made up the annual. We trust that as you look back over the pages and recall the happy hours spent at C. E. I., the 1959 Vision will bring to you light and also inspiration.

Young People's Holiness League

The purpose of the Young People's Holiness League as a student organization is to provide outlets for practical service and experience. This is gained through Christian Service Assignments and Youth Conference Activities.

A retreat is held each Fall at Lake Keomah to provide spiritual incentives for the incoming student body. Another project is a chapel service conducted twice each month. This year, the organization also sponsored a school-wide Christian Service workshop.

The Y. P. H. L. organizes a Youth Conference each year. This is a week-end of intensive evangelistic effort for young people from several states. This year the theme: "Christ in You—the Hope of Glory" was presented. Dr. Myron Boyd was guest speaker.

The purpose of the Men's Housing Association is:

1. More spiritual and social unity among the men.
2. Betterment of living conditions among the men.
3. More complete relationship between dorm and administration.

Music Culture Club

The purpose of the Music Culture Club is the extension of music appreciation throughout the entire school and the development of a clearer understanding of classical music through studying the great composers and their works.

Several features of the Club are films of outstanding musicians, listening to outstanding records and the co-operation of the Club with the Oskaloosa Concert Association in providing tickets for three concerts each year.

Logios

LOGIOS SOCIETY

The newly reorganized speech club, the Logios Society, chose a challenging topic for its first meeting: "Resolved—That the Furtherance of All Nuclear Weapon Tests Shoud be Abolished in All Countries" as the subject to be debated. Mr. Merne Harris acted as chairman, with President Logan as honorary host and Mrs. Merne Harris as honorary hostess for the social hour preceding the debate. Mrs. George Kushman, instructor in speech, demonstrated real skill in the planning and decorating of the "space-minded" program.

The Logios Society has been organized to replace the former Sip and Chat Club and has as its purpose the development of skill in debate and discussion. The name "Logios" is a Greek word meaning eloquent or skilled in words and is used in Acts 18:24 to describe Apollos as "an eloquent man, mighty in the Scriptures."

One criticism often directed against Christians is that we are uninformed about our contemporary world. At C. E. I. it has been felt that the criticism is perhaps well taken—that a conscientious Christian should be well informed about the Current Events of our age. We do, after all, believe that the Bible speaks to this age, and it is undoubtedly true that there are many present-day happenings which have a definite relationship to the unfolding of prophetic predictions.

The formal organization designed to develop in our students an appreciation of events as they transpire and an ability to rightly interpret these happenings is the Current Events Club.

Membership is limited as to number, but any interested C. E. I. student may join until the membership list is full. This year's members include Carol Abendroth, Sharon Clark, Stanley Gravett, Virginia Gravett, Aaron Gray, Janet Hawke, Inez Hebel, Hester A. Humble, Marjory Kies, Betty Klein, Dick Klein, Beverly Miller, Earl Miller, Mary Reinking, Carl Smith, Dorothy Smith, Bernita Snyder, Alvin Wagner, and Jack Wolgamuth. Our advisor is Merne A. Harris.

Special Speakers

Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet, —

This year the Lord has indeed been faithful in providing C. E. I. with speakers from different areas of service. We have been privileged to hear missionaries, directors of Bible Club Work, ministers from the area, evangelists, and also superintendents of churches. Our campus was visited with an unusual outpouring of the Holy Spirit when Dr. Rose ministered to us in the Fall Convocation.

Other guest speakers include: Mrs. Annie Laurie Griener, evangelist; Rev. Franklin Shaw, minister of the Free Methodist Church in Oskaloosa; Rev. Duane Moon, pastor of the Friends' Church; Miss Jeanne Saeger, missionary on furlough from Africa; Rev. J. D. Snyder, a Free Methodist evangelist; Rev. Clarence Budensiek, District Superintendent of the Wesleyan Methodist Church; Captain Bowe of the Salvation Army in Oskaloosa; Mrs. Ruth Cox, a return missionary from Africa; Dr. Bishop, superintendent of the Peniel Missions; Rev. Donald Calhoun, pastor of the Oskaloosa Wesleyan Methodist Church; Bernice Jordan, Vice-Director of the Bible Club Movement of America; Rev. Richardson, pastor of the Delta Methodist Church; and Dr. Harry E. Jessop, President Emeritus.

And a light unto my path.

The King's Messengers quartet, the official college deputation team for the spring and summer of 1958, consisted of two brother-sister combinations. They were Paul and Naomi Maloney of Pontiac, Michigan, and Dick and Betty Klein of Oakes, North Dakota. In the spring they traveled through Minnesota, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa, with Mrs. Eleanor Rutgers Partridge, their accompanist, and Mr. Walter Tink, voice instructor. Miss Judy Grosvenor joined the group for summer tour as the accompanist. Mr. Harris and Mr. Blackstone traveled with them as their sponsors until Mr. Tink joined them in July. North and South Dakota, and Nebraska were added to the list of states toured during the summer. In all, the group traveled 13,874 miles.

MISSIONS

WORLD GOSPEL MISSION, an interdenominational organization with 191 missionaries serving on 12 different fields around the world, wishes God's richest blessing upon each student and graduate of C.E.I.

The contribution C.E.I. has made to the training of many WGM missionaries is greatly appreciated. The keen missionary interest of C.E.I. students and graduates is helping today to reap a harvest of souls around the world.

A Word From Our Advisor

(to which I add a bit of quasi-original versification)

If you're writing for the Year-Book,
Cut it down!
Make it half or even less,
Cut it down!

Let your words be short and few,
Monosyllables will do,
Take a hint from one who knows,
Cut it down!

If a Foreword you attempt,
Cut it down!
The long ones always limp,
Cut it down!

You don't need to fill a page,
If your mind goes on a rampage.
If you want to be a sage,
Cut it down!
